MAKES SERIOUS CHARGE IN SUIT

William Blakmon, Colored, Charges
Marion McCann Has Alienated
His Wife's Affections.

ASKS FOR $5,000 DAMAGES

Declares That Defendant Has Debauched And Carnally Known
Mrs. Blakmon.

Late this afternoon, William Blakmon, colored, filed suit in the circuit court against Marion McCann for the alienation of his wife's feelings and asks five thousand dollars damages. Blakmon makes many serious charges in the complaint.

The plaintiff complains of Marion McCann and says that on a certain day, which is not named in the complaint, he and Lillie Summerville were married and that she has since been known as Lillie Blakmon. He charges that the defendant has contrived and wilfully intended to injure Blakmon. It is asserted in the complaint that McCann has planned to deprive him of the society, comfort and association of his wife. Blakmon complains that the defendant has attempted and succeeded to alienate and destroy the affections of his wife for him.

It is further charged in the complaint that on various occasions and on divers days and before the commencement of the action, which resulted in the suit today the defendant and had by unlawful conduct and words, paid attention to Mrs. Blakmon. Blakmon says that at many times near Rushville and elsewhere McCann has wrongfully and unlawfully, without privity or connivance of the plaintiff, debauched and carnally known his wife. He says that the defendant knew that she was the plaintiff's wife. He says that the unlawful conduct has continued until this time.

Blakmon declares that, under the influence and persuasion of Marion McCann, Mrs. Blakmon has refused to live with him and in June, 1910, filed suit for a divorce from him. For that reason, it is declared in the complaint, Blakmon wants judgment from the defendant in the sum of five thousand dollars.

Watson, Tittsworth & Green are attorneys for the plaintiff.

The police were notified and immediately called the chief of police in North Vernon and told him to take the man off the train. Guests at State Convention Here Into Divisions.

PLANNING TO ENTERTAIN THEM

The members of the Phi chapter of the Tri Kappa sorority, who will be hostesses for the annual convention here June 22 and 23, are planning to keep tab on everyone who is here for the convention. It is their plan to label all of the girls so that it will be possible to classify them. "Tags" in three colors will be printed. One color will be worn by members of the local chapter, another by the guests at the convention and still another by the delegates from the various chapters. Each girl will inscribe her name on her card which will be tied on so that she can be identified with ease. At the regular meeting of the sorority last night, further details for the coming event were arranged and plans are being made for the entertainment of the visiting sorority girls.

AMATEURS WORK WITH VIM TODAY

Great Progress is Made in Erecting the Tabernacle For Orr Revival Meeting.

MASHED FINGERS ARE COMMON

Lawyers, Bankers, Business Men and Farmers Join in Volunteer Movement.

Great strides were made today toward the completion of the tabernacle on the Mull lot where the Orr revival meeting will be held. Amateur carpenters were there all day and accomplished much good. About as many helpers as could work without getting in one another's way were out today and the building is now practically assured.

Lawyers, merchants, farmers and men in practically every walk of life perspired and mashed their fingers for the good of the cause today. They worked in relays, men coming on at different hours of the day, but many there were who put in the whole day on the job.

Beautiful coats of tan were made in a day and sore hands were as numerous as were the volunteer workmen. The sound of the impact of the hammer with the boards (the volunteers persisted in driving after the nail was driven through the board) was heard in the vicinity of the tabernacle all day. Many of the volunteer workers donned a pair of overalls and went at the work in earnest, while others wore their "Sunday" clothes.

Great progress was made on the building. Practically all of the roof on the main section was put on and the frame for the additions on either side of the main portion of the tabernacle was put up. For that reason the committee will be ready for many more volunteers tomorrow than were out today. Tomorrow everything will be in readiness to put on the roof and there will be any amount of siding to be nailed on. This will be easy work as it will be possible to stand on the ground and do most of the work.

The taking of the church census was started this morning in earnest. Ten members of each church are engaged in the work. They will take the census of the city in reality as blanks have been prepared so that the members of every family in the city will be included.

On Tuesday evening the regular weekly meeting of the Personal Workers committee will be held in the parlors of the United Presbyterian church. On Wednesday evening the cottage prayer meetings will be held, and on Thursday night the union prayer meeting will be held at the First Baptist church.

EFFORT TO RELEASE JIM PEA

His Mother is Getting Signers to a Petition.

Mrs. Montgomery, mother of James Pea, recently sent to the Jeffersonville reformatory for a violation of his parole, is circulating a petition in the city for his release. She is meeting with success as far as signers are concerned and expects to send the petition to Governor Marshall. It will be remembered Pea was sent up for attempting to shoot Charles Bell.

THEIR PRIDE IS BADLY WOUNDED

Roumanians and Austrians Refuse to Eat and Sleep With Dusky Sons of Sunny Italy.

CHOOSE THEIR ROOMMATES

Gang of Italians Are Imported But Other Foreigners Will Not Share Shack With Them.

The crowd of foreigners which was imported to work on the streets from Cleveland, Ohio, by the Adams Brothers Construction Company a few weeks ago will chose their own roommates. They have made their thoughts known on that subject already. When the company moved in thirty Italians on the cosmopolitan gang of foreigners in the shack along the river yesterday, said foreigners balked. They refused to sleep and live with the dirty Italians. They made that known by their many gesticulations and mutterings.

The result is that the company has only thirty foreign laborers today, where they had forty yesterday. The remainder of the gang of Roumanians, Austrians, et cetera, which were shipped in here from Cleveland "beat it." There were forty in the first gang, but they gradually dwindled away until only ten were left. They were all living in the nice, new board shack that was erected for their special benefit along the banks of Flatrock near the white bridge on the east pike.

Yesterday evening the thirty Italians were brought in from Cambridge City, where they have been working on the Pennsylvania construction work. They were taken out to the common home but the ten foreigners drew the line at that. Roumanians will associate with Austrians and vice versa, but the Italians—that's another tale. They positively refused to live with the sons of sunny Italy and last night they left the city.

T. C. Day, business agent for the company, offered to rent them a house here in the city and also he was willing to rent a tent for them, but their feelings were hurt. They felt that their pride had been sorely trampled and they could do nothing more than refuse all proposals of the company.

STORY NOT GIVEN MUCH CREDENCE

Local People do Not Believe Mrs.
Mary Nestle is as Wealthy as She Says.

SON WAS PROMINENT MAN

Local people are disposed to believe that Mrs. Mary Nestle, who became hysterical while mourning over the death of her son Sunday evening, is not as wealthy as she would have others believe. She says that her grandson inherited forty thousand dollars from her husband and that he has it invested in property in Indianapolis. She has the will to prove her assertions. Her story that her son was wealthy is given credence by people who are acquainted with the family. They say that he was in the wholesale tobacco business and was president of the company. It is believed that he had amassed a comfortable fortune.

JAIL EMPTY ONCE MORE

Three Men Are Released and Bastille Is Lonesome Place.

Once more the Rush county jail is empty and Clata Bebout, is rather lonesome. The last man was released yesterday evening, when Omer Adams arranged to pay his fine for being drunk. Elmer Hendricks was allowed to go free yesterday after having "layed" out a fine and Will Geiger was also released for the same reason. It is the first time the jail has been empty since Ben Noble committed suicide.

CHAMPIONSHIP CROQUET MATCH

Hancock County "Phenoms" Look Like Amateurs in Series With Two Rush County Men.

LET THEM DOWN WITH I GAME

Charles Gray and Luther Newhouse, claiming the croquet championship of Hancock county, invaded this county last Sunday and hoped to make Rush county's aspirants to honors in the "popular sport" look like amateurs. The two men had "cleaned up" on about everything in sight and came here looking for "fruit."

They were due to a great disappointment as Rufus Rhodes and Charlie McBride of Center township upset the "dope" and handed out the worst defeat ever known since the game of croquet was originated. Try as they would, the men from Hancock just could not win a game and threatened to quit and break up the party. It was then that they were allowed to win their only game and this was permitted as a "coaxer." It is not known just how many games constituted the series, but they quit only when it was too dark to see the pills. Rhodes and McBride were in great form and their swing was almost perfect. As a result of their victory, they claim the championship of the county.

WELL KNOWN MAN SUFFERED STROKE

Theodore Schonert of Gings in Serious Condition From Paralysis—
Little Hope For Recovery.

WAS FOUND THIS MORNING

Theodore Schonert, one of the pioneer citizens of this county, suffered a stroke of paralysis this morning at his home in Gings. Mr. Schonert is 80 years old and little hope is expressed for his recovery. His tongue is paralyzed and he is unable to speak a word. There is also a blood clot on his brain. Mr. Schonert was found unconscious this morning when the family tried to arouse him.

Mr. Schonert is well known in this city and county. He came to this city from Germany at an early age and engaged in the blacksmith business. Later he moved to Gings and has since made that his home. He had planned to visit his three children in Salt Lake City next month. Because of his condition, all the children have been called to his bedside.

TWO ARE STUCK BY PITCH FORK

T. A. Williams Pays Fine in Squire's Court After Fight With Orvin Wagoner.

TAKES PLACE AT RACE TRACK

Wagoner is Jabbed in Abdomen With Sharp Prong, But Not Seriously Hurt.

Once more T. A. Williams, second trainer for Harrie Jones at the Riverside race track, broke into court, when he paid a fine of $9.75 in Squire James Kratzer's court as the result of a fight with Orvin Wagoner, an employee in the Jones' stables, at the race track yesterday. It will be remembered that Williams paid the same fine when he pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery on Joe Woods on Wednesday night, May 3, in front of a down town drug store.

It seems, from all that can be learned from the principals and witnesses to the fistie encounter at the race track yesterday, that it was a fight to the finish for a time. A pitch fork in the hands of Wagoner was stuck into both of the belligerents at the beginning of the encounter, but later it was done away with and a regular ring fight was on for a time. Wagoner was stuck in the abdomen by the fork but it is not thought that the injury will be serious. Williams was only pricked with one of the prongs and suffered no pain from the slight wound.

It is said that Wagoner met Harrie Jones on the street yesterday and was asked by him if he had finished certain duties at the race track. He was sent back to close a few doors, put bedding out for the horses and do several other things. While working there with a pitch fork, Wagoner alleges that Williams aimed a rather insulting remark to him. One thing led to another until Williams came at Wagoner, so it is alleged by Wagoner.

It seems that Wagoner had nothing to protect himself and resorted to a jab from the fork to stop his on-rushing opponent. In the scuffle, it is said that the pitch fork was turned on Wagoner and he was stuck in the abdomen.

According to witnesses, the pitch fork was discharged and a fight according to the best ring rules was indulged in. It is said a ring was made out and the two men went to it with all their might and main. Wagoner, so it is said, knocked Williams in a tub of water and battered him up considerably. Witnesses say that Williams got much the worst of the encounter while others say that he held his own fort very well.

SHOWS GAIN.

A complete State school enumeration, showing the total number of children between the ages of 6 and 21 years, has been completed by John I. Hoffman, deputy State superintendent of public instruction. It shows a net gain in the number over last year of 3,278. The total enumeration shows there are 758,250 children of school age in the State. This number includes 384,405 white males, 358,227 white females, 7,836 colored males and 7,782 colored females.

AGED PREACHER SINKING.

Buying Up-to-Date Goods

No woman likes to feel that she is buying old, shopworn, out-of-date goods.

She wants goods which are new and fresh, especially in articles of wear and ornamentation.

The store in which you trade largely determines what kind of goods you are buying.

If you trade in stores which do a small amount of business, you may rest assured that your merchant is always carrying goods which are two or three seasons out-of-date.

Such a merchant depends upon people coming to his store and searching through the stock to find out what they want.

The bright advertising merchant goes at it in another way.

He doesn't wait for people to dig through the stock to find his goods, but he uses space in the newspapers to tell all the people about his goods.

Advertising makes it easy for them to know about his wares, brings him immediate buyers and he sells his stock over and over again.

It doesn't get a chance to get stale—out-of-date.

Therefore, if you want to feel that the goods you are buying are right in style, quality and price, you should patronize the merchants who advertise.

FAVOR STREET OILING.

(Greenfield Reporter.)

The experiment of oiling streets to keep the dust down, which, however, has almost passed from the experimental stage, is proving quite popular with those who have tried it.

In this city Lucian Curry and Captain Henry Snow tried the experiment to their satisfaction last year and repeated it again this spring. Others have taken it up, including W. B. Bottsford, William Winkler, B. A. Sunderland and James Thomas, on North street, and they are well pleased with the results.

They are using the Standard asphalt road oil and claim there is no odor and that flies will not stay where the oil is used. Those who have used the oil plan say it is the most sanitary thing they can find.

The experiment is being tried this year at Knightstown, Cambridge City, Thorntown, Connersville, Lebanon, Rushville, Carthage, Richmond, Liberty and Morristown, where the local representative of the oil company are having shipped from two to five tanks of 30,000 gallons capacity at each city.

LA FOLLETTE IS GIVEN BACKSET

Senate Not Agreeable to His Special Committee.

THE REGULAR PROCEEDURE

Will Be Followed in the Lorimer Case if the Substitute Resolution of Senator Dillingham, Chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, Goes Through. Which Now Seems Altogether Likely.

Washington, May 23.—As a substitute for the one by La Follette authorizing a second investigation of the Lorimer case, Senator Dillingham, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, has introduced a resolution. Mr. Dillingham's resolution proposes that the investigation into the Lorimer charges shall be conducted by a sub-committee of the committee on privileges and elections instead of by a select committee as proposed by Mr. La Follette. It is the impression around the senate that Mr. Dillingham's resolution will prevail, which will mean a prompt and sweeping inquiry into the new charges against Senator Lorimer growing out of the investigation by the Illinois state legislature. The Democratic senators agreed to support the resolution, which is a substitute for the La Follette resolution.

PAYING THE PENALTY

Men Who For Years Defrauded the Government Now Face Court.

New York, May 23.—Henry J. Duveen, head of the art and antique importing house of Duveen Brothers, will plead guilty today in the United States circuit court of conspiring with other members of the firm to defraud the government by undervaluing importations. United States Attorney Wise will urge Judge Martin to impose a prison sentence.

Mr. Duveen has been at large on $75,000 bail, and it was supposed that he was still in England. He reached this city last Saturday. Benjamin J. Duveen, a nephew, also will enter a plea of guilty. Two other nephews, Louis J. and Joseph J. Duveen, who are connected with the English house of Duveen Brothers, and who were indicted at the same time, pleaded guilty in the federal circuit court in April and were fined $10,000 each.

The government forfeiture suit to recover on all imported articles tainted with fraud was settled by Duveen Brothers for $1,000,000, and that amount was paid into the United States treasury.

POSTOFFICE ON WHEELS

The People of Miami, Ariz., Hardly Know Where They Are At.

Washington, May 23.—Postmaster General Hitchcock on May 6 ordered the postoffice of Miami, Ariz., moved to a new site. Rollers were slipped under it and the start was made two days later. Immediately the business interests of the town were aroused and protests began to pour into the department. On May 16 instructions were issued to return the postoffice to the old site. Then the faction which favors the new site got busy. So vigorous were the protests from them against the change of plans that the postoffice department sent an inspector there to investigate. Pending the inquiry the postoffice remains on wheels somewhere between the new and the old site.

Heretofore the fur-bearing animals in Indiana have been at the mercy of civilization and it was always the open season for them. However, the last legislature passed a bill protecting certain of the fur-bearing animals and making it unlawful to kill or capture them in the closed seasons.

The protective act was passed last February and is now a law. It reads:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That it shall be unlawful for any person to take, trap, hunt, shoot or kill any mink, raccoon, skunk or muskrat, in the State of Indiana, during the months of April, May,

June, July, August, September and October, of any year: Provided, That nothing in this act shall prevent any owner or occupant of real estate in this state, or the owner or manager of any levee, dyke, dam or public drain from killing any of said fur-bearing animals when necessary for the protection of their property.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to injure or destroy any muskrat house at any time except where such muskrat house is an obstruction to public or private ditches of watercourses.

Sec. 3. Any person who shall violate any provisions of this act shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine or not less than two dollars ($2.00) nor more than five dollars ($5.00) for each offense.

Arbitration treaties are being negotiated with England and France, but the Senate would rather see a war some day than give up any of its traditional privileges to vote on it.

The Zeppelin airships have had their sixth consecutive accident. The time has not yet come when we can send our children up in the air to keep them out of the way of the automobiles in the streets.

George Bernard Shaw says he won't come to America because there is nothing to interest him. Perhaps if some charitably disposed American would order a few copies of his books, he might feel better toward us.

Now they are trying to amend the Sherman law. As it will take four years to pass such a law, and six years to carry a case through the Supreme court, the trust people are not doing much "thinking in bed" about it.

The American people paid down their good money in exorbitant prices for oil without saying much. When the Standard began to trample on American ideals by driving competitors out of business, there was something doing.

Former President Eliot of Harvard comes out in favor of the "New Agriculture." From our experiments in the garden this spring, we are convinced that the same amount of muscle is required to propel the hoe and spade as ever before.

Prof. Robert E. Blount of Waller high school of Oak Park, Chicago, believes that kissing schools should be established and that young people should be taught the perfectly conventional way to conduct a courtship. This may be an age of specializing, but that is drawing specialization down to a point that is an extreme case of discrimination. This would be a dry old world with all courtships alike. With all courtships similar it would be reasonable to predict that all marriages would be alike. The American is known the world over for his freedom of ways and his aversion to conventionalism although there is a class that would ape the snobbish ways of foreign nobility. The idea makes a better newspaper story than it would the foundation for a school. It is about as practical as the school for juniors that was proposed in New York recently.

EDITORIALETTES.

Our friends will no doubt observe that this column furnished the necessary rain to save the country and the crops. We hope to have due credit for the same. Thanks, yes, we appreciate those kind words.

A certain party, who singed his name—but that makes no difference—writing from San Antonio, Texas, says that they have dirty streets there. He says he has been reading our paper and he sympathizes with Rushville. (Beats all how this paper does get around.)

That reminds us of the gladsome tidings we received today; they say that the street sweeper has been shipped.

But some times shipping facilities are rotten. (That's a great little word, that facilitates.)

The worthy contemporary of this column mentions something about everyone that starts a remonstrance is an old "foggy." We mention this merely to get something funny in here today.

That rain yesterday didn't materially assist the straw hat crop if it did help others.

An exchange remarks that it is laying aside the seed catalogue to take up the railroad folder. Most of us haven't got our gardens all planted yet.

And then most of these vacations are only tentative anyway.

No use to persist in calling Rushville a town.

OF HUMAN INTEREST. SOME TRADER.

James Watson, Jr., second son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Watson has just completed a bargain by which he gained, but which will cause him to lose in the end, so it seems. James sold his pony with the understanding that his father should allow him to purchase a motorbike, but it seems that James will miss the rare pleasure of being jolted to small parts on the "go-devils." His father says a motorcycle is too hard on the nervous system and—James will probably never get one.

At least James, Jr., has established a reputation as a trader and trafficker of some proportions. Webb Woodfill of Greensburg bought the pony for his daughter, Laura, but not until he had paid the youthful owner's price. Last Friday Mr. Woodfill came up here to look at the pony.

"Well, I'll give you $125 for the pony," said Mr. Woodfill as a starter on the bargain.

"Nope," James said, and he held steadfastly to his original price of $140 until he finally got it.

"It is customary, I think," observed Mr. Woodfill, "to throw in the saddle and bridle in a trade like this."

"I never traded before," replied the young bargainer, "but I don't like to establish any precedents, so I'll just keep the bridle and saddle."

"But I suppose you will ride the pony down to Greensburg and deliver it, will you not?"

"I will if you will pay my ear fare back home," was the reply and the bargain ended by James Watson riding the pony to Greensburg Saturday and being entertained at the Woodfill home at dinner. He was given his earfare back home.

INFECTIOUS LETTER.

There is a bright little boy of ten years in Chicago who has relatives here. He was afflicted with the mumps and he feared that others would "catch" them. He wrote his relatives here concerning a contemplated visit for this summer. At the end of his letter he wrote the following "P. S." "Tear this up or you'll catch the mumps."

Demonstration

The Paxton-Eckman Chemical company, of which T. N. Tinder is the agent in this county, will give a demonstration of their work at Milroy tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at Mercer's livery barn in that town.

Mr. Tinder has made arrangements for the demonstration with Anderson township hog raisers and the work will be conducted in the same manner and by the same parties that gave a similar demonstration in this city a short time ago.

The work is a demonstration of the condition of swine that is by many called cholera, but which is considered by these people a derangement of the animal similar to pneumonia or fever and which may be combated and cured by their special preparation and it is the purpose of these demonstrators to explain to the hog raisers these conditions.

Mr. Eckman of the company, Mr. Wilson, the company's veterinary and Mr. Tinder will be at Milroy and it is expected that several of Rush county's largest breeders will attend and witness the demonstration and hear the lecture. 611t

THOUSAND MARK REACHED AGAIN

Today Total Fund Being Raised to Pay Off Earlham Indebtedness is $19,431.

IS CREEPING TOWARD $25,000

Several Indianapolis Men Have Hand in Boosting Sum to Present Proportions.

Another "thousand mark" has been passed in the campaign to raise $50,000 for Earlham College by June 21. Contributions amounting to $1,175 have been received at campaign headquarters since yesterday, when the total was $18,256. Today the total is $19,431. Slowly but surely the fund is creeping toward $25,000—which will be just halfway.

Several other Indianapolis men had a hand in boosting today's total. In fact, it was altogether an Indianapolis boost. The entire amount—$1,175, was given by six Indianapolis men. Added to the $2,000 pledges by two Indianapolis men the day before, the amount credited to Indianapolis in the last day or two totals $3,175. Eight men gave it. Last week $230 was reported from Indianapolis, making the total to date $3,405.

Kokomo has been another productive field. The contributions from there have been many and substantial. New Castle has figured fairly well, and Spiceland and Lewisville have made good contributions.

A rule has been adopted at campaign headquarters, under which no pledges will be announced until the signed pledge cards have been received and filed at headquarters. Reports of pledges are often received in advance of the cards, but in order to prevent confusion, nothing is announced until it is down in black and white, and filed away.

Reports of this character indicate that the people of Hamilton county are rising to the opportunity. V. D. Nicholson, who is one of the canvassers there says that fifteen people in that county have given a total of $1,625, which is more than $100 each. He expects Hamilton county to produce at least $5,000.

AMUSEMENTS

If the weather is favorable the Star Grand will show in the Airdome tonight. If not it will show in the theater. Three pictures will be shown. The first is a Yankee drama entitled "The Folks Back Home." The second picture is an Itala comedy entitled "Who Will Eat the Turkey." It is a laughable comedy ending in a side-splitting finale. The last picture is also an Itala entitled "The Overmountains Sledge." A new song.

The Vaudet management offers three reels of pictures this evening, two of them being dramas and the other a comedy. "The Love Feast," a Solax drama is said to be a story of great worth. The dramatic action in the film is said to be above the ordinary. The Atlas comedy "The Little German Band" is a picture of a very humorous nature in which the pranks of a German band are pictured to perfection. "A Midnight Adventure" is a Nestor drama and is said to be thrilling in the extreme.

The Palace will show two films tonight, each one containing two subjects. "The Sword and the Cross," a Kosmik film, is a colored feature film, telling a Bible story. "Breakers in the Clouds" is a scenic production. The picture is taken from an observatory at the height of 15,000 feet and shows scenes around Mount Blanc. "The Cowboy's Adventure" is a typical western story. "Coco" pictures the funny things which a pet monkey causes.

PROBABLY MANY SIMILAR ONES

No more will the men of Fountaintown, between here and Indianapolis be able to order a dish of ice cream with their hair cuts. When the barber starts to shave a customer he will no longer be required to wipe the lather from his hands to go make a chocolate sundae.

The State food and drug department takes the position that barber shops and ice cream parlors are entirely incompatible and have no place in the same room. When Commissioner Barnard received word that two of the Fountaintown barber shops were serving ice cream and cooling summer drinks he immediately took steps to compel the proprietors to give up one line of business or the other. It is very likely that similar establishments are operated in many small towns.

RAINS BRING LIGHT HEARTS

Farmers Are Pleased With Weather Conditions and Predict Unusual Crops This Year.

WARM WEATHER DOES GOOD

Clover and Hay Crops Will be Small

—Corn Planting is Almost Finished.

Farmers are more than pleased as the result of the rains of the last few days. The rain was greatly wanted and it came just in time to save many farmers a great amount of money, so prominent grain growers declare. The wheat and clover needed it especially as well as all of the other crops that have been planted so far. For a time last week it was feared that the dry conditions would cause dire results. Most of the farmers over the county have been working fourteen hours a day during the recent stretch of nice weather and a few of them have finished planting their corn, while many are almost through.

It was feared that the greatest harm would be done to the clover crop. There was not much clover in the ground until last Saturday, however, so many farmers say. Last year's crop was almost a total failure, the clover dying in the ground and now it is said by a few that almost like conditions prevailed up until the time of the rains. Many of the agriculturists of the county have been waiting until they could get some idea of the prospects for rain and many, so it is said, will not sow clover this year on account of the uncertainty of the crop.

Oats was considerably damaged by the recent dry spell although it is thought that the crop will pull through all right. The hay crop was hurt and caused the price of hay to soar. Local hay buyers stated today that the hay crop throughout this territory is shorter than has ever been known in the history of the State. Added to this comes reports of light acreage of new hay and the market is holding high and firm.

It was rumored on the local market that the grass cutting may begin next week. Some say this will result in lower prices, but others hold the market will advance, owing to the fact that the grass will in no way satisfy the city demand for hay.

Throughout the county and the State as well prospects never were better for wheat. The stalks are large, healthy and apparently full of vigor. The blades show green and healthy color. Fields early planted promise to produce a big acreage and the farmers are looking for a bumper crop.

"I have never seen so many blooms as fruit trees this year bear," said a prominent farmer of Rush county. "All that was needed for a big year in all lines of agriculture was a good heavy rain, and it came."

The hot weather of the last few days, notwithstanding the complaint it has elicited from those abroad in it, or who weltered at home, resulted in some good, particularly to the growing corn. Its usefulness in this direction was marked, according to the farmers, in the actual growth of the sprouts which it has encouraged, as in its hastening the metamorphosis of the cut worm.

Cut worms which hatch in the corn fields and set themselves industriously to work to shear the young blades off, just above the parent grain, are one of the most potent and dreaded causes of corn failures hereabout. These little creatures thrive best in damp, cool weather. When the hot sun shines for several days together they hatch out and leave the worm stage, becoming winged insects which no longer have anything to do with corn. They have hatched by millions last week and every hatch removed a unit of danger for some stalk of corn. The metamorphosis has progressed so far now that there is not much fear of any serious damage from the worms.

CHAPTER VI.

The Escape.

It was dark enough for their purpose in half an hour, the only gleam of remaining color being the red glow of the negro's pipe, even the opening in the iron grating being blotted from sight. Keith, staring in that direction, failed to perceive any distant glimmer of star, and decided the night must be cloudy, and that time for action had come. Guided by Neb's pipe bowl, he touched the boy on the shoulder.

"Knock out your ashes, and shuffle about lively with your feet, while I pry up the board."

In spite of his slenderness, Keith possessed unusual strength, yet no exertion on his part served to start the loosened plank sufficiently for their purpose. Ripping a strip from the bench he managed to pry the hole somewhat larger, arranging the bench itself so as to afford the necessary leverage, but even then his entire weight failed to either start the spikes, or crack the plank. Some altercation began in the other room, the sound of angry voices and shuffling feet being plainly audible. It was clear to Keith that they must take the chance of a noise, and no better time than this could be chosen.

"Here, Neb, take hold with me, and bear down—put your whole weight on it, boy."

The two flung themselves upon the end of the bench, leaping up and down so as to add weight to power. Something had to give, either the stout wood of their improvised lever or else the holding of the plank. For an instant it seemed likely to be the former; then, with a shrill screech, the long spikes yielded and the board suddenly gave. With shoulders inserted beneath, the two men heaved it still higher, ramming the bench below so as to leave the opening clear. This was now sufficiently ample for the passage of a man's body, and Keith, lowering himself, discovered

Watch Your Kidneys.

Their action controls your health. Read what Foley Kidney Pills have done for your neighbor. W. H. Personett, 604 No. Pratt St., Greenfield, Ind. says: For many years I was afflicted with backache and general kidney trouble and at times I could not straighten up or sit down without suffering great agony. My kidney action was irregular and when I got a little cold, it settled there, causing much distress. Foley Kidney Pills were recommended to me. I took them according to directions. Three bottles cured me of my troubles and I shall always recommend Foley Kidney Pills to my friends for kidney and bladder disorders." For sale by F. B. Johnson & Co.

'Cascarets' End All the Miserable Days

A Ten Cent Box Insures You Against a Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation of a Bad Stomach For a Long Time.

Primitive men did not need Cascarets. They lived outdoors, ate plenty of fruit, and all of their food was coarse. We modern people are different. We exercise too little, eat little fruit, and our food is too fine, too rich.

We can't have the bowels clogged up and keep well. It means that the food retained there decays. The decay creates poisons. And those poisons are sucked into the blood through the very ducts intended to suck in the nutriment. So we must make our choice. We must live, to an extent, like the primitive man else we must eat Cascarets.

Cascarets do what the right food would do, what plenty of exercise does. The effect is as natural from one as the other. The question is one of convenience. If you choose Cascarets, take them as you take food, not in large doses rarely, but a tablet at a time. That is the way to keep well. Get a ten cent box now.

died slowly away behind, the night silent and dark. The two riders could scarcely distinguish one another as they drew rein at the edge of the water. To the southward there gleamed a cluster of lights, marking the position of the camp of regulars. Keith drove his horse deeper into the stream and headed northward, the negro following like a shadow.

There was a ford directly opposite the cantonment, and another, more dangerous, and known to only a few, three miles farther up stream. Keeping well within the water's edge, so as to thus completely obscure their trail, yet not daring to venture deep for fear of striking quicksand, the plainsman set his pony struggling forward, until the dim outline of the bank at his right rendered him confident that they had attained the proper point for crossing. He had been that way only once before, and realized the danger of attempting passage in such darkness, but urgent need drove him forward.

"Follow me just as close as you can, boy," he said sternly, "and keep both your feet out of the stirrups. If your horse goes down hang to his tail, and let him swim out."

There was little enough to guide by, merely a single faint star peering out from a rift of the clouds, but Keith's remembrance was that the ford led straight out to the center of the stream, and then veered slightly toward the right. He knew the sand ridge was only used by horsemen, not being wide enough for the safe passage of wagons, but the depth of the water on either side was entirely problematical. He was taking a big chance, yet dare not wait for daylight. Summoning all his nerve and alertness, he urged his horse slowly forward, the intelligent animal seemingly comprehending the situation, and feeling carefully for footing. The actions of the animal gave the rider greater confidence, and he loosened his grip on the rein, leaving the pony's instinct to control. The latter fairly crept forward, testing the sand before resting any weight upon the hoof, the negro's mount following closely. The water was unusually high, and as they advanced it bore down against them in considerable volume; then, as they veered to the right, they were compelled to push directly against its weight in struggling toward shore. The men could see nothing but this solid sheet of water rushing down

STOMACH DISTRESS

F. B. Johnson & Co. Sells Mi-o-na, the Money Back Cure.

Indigestion will not long trouble you if you put your faith in Mi-o-na stomach tablets.

Taken after meals Mi-o-na stops heaviness, sourness, belching of gas, or heartburn in five minutes.

It is guaranteed to cure indigestion and build up the stomach, or money back. It cured Mrs. Klumpp, it will cure you. Read:

"One year ago I was cured of a severe stomach trouble by the use of Mi-o-na. My food fermented and soured, causing gas and a nauseous condition. I could not eat, and became weak, depressed, and was sick about six weeks. Doctoring without success, I was advised to try Mi-o-na. I received relief from using the first box, and continuing, I used four in all, and was cured. There is nothing too strong for me to say in favor of Mi-o-na. It cures where other remedies and doctors fail."—Mrs. Wm. Klumpp E. Edgetown, Lowell, Mich.

toward them from out the black void, and then vanishing below. Once Keith's horse half fell, plunging nose under, yet gaining foothold again before the rider had deserted his saddle. A dim darkness ahead already revealed the nearness of the southern bank, when Neb's pony went down suddenly, swept fairly off its legs by some fierce eddy in the stream. Keith heard the negro's guttural cry, and caught a glimpse of him as the two were sent whirling down. The coiled rope of the lariat, grasped in his right hand, was hurled forth like a shot, but came back empty. Not another sound reached him; his own horse went steadily on, feeling his way, until he was nose against the bank, with water merely rippling about his ankles. Keith driving feet again into the stirrups headed him down stream, wading close in toward the shore, leaning forward over the pommel striving to see through the gloom.

He had no doubt about Neb's pony making land, unless struck by some driftwood, or borne to the center of the stream by the shifting force of the current. But if Neb had failed to retain his grip he might have been sucked under by the surge of waters. A hundred yards below he found them, dripping and weak from the struggle, yet otherwise unhurt. There were no words spoken, but the black and white hands clasped silently, and then Neb crept back into the saddle, shivering in his wet clothes as the cool night wind swept against him. Keeping close in toward shore, yet far enough out so that the water would hide their trail, the fugitives toiled steadily up stream, guided only by the black outline of the low bank upon their left.

MEXICO MAKES FAIR PROMISES

Everything In Reason and Justice
Will Be Granted.
A FULL MEASURE OF LIBERTY

Will Be Accorded the People, According to Provisional President De La Barra, and Peace Will Be Established on a Firm Basis—Diaz Delegates to Chamber of Deputies Will Step Out With Aged Chief.

Mexico City, May 23.—The resignation of Delegate Valle, vice president of the chamber, tendered last Wednesday, was acted upon at a secret session of the chamber of deputies last evening. He says that he does not care to serve longer when the resignation of Diaz becomes effective. The entire group of Diaz deputies handed in their resignations, to become operative on the day that the aged president steps down.

A cabinet meeting discussed the resignation of President Diaz, which will probably go to the chamber of deputies tomorrow. All the members refused to talk as to what took place at the meeting. Francisco De La Barra, who is slated to become provisional president, said that so far as any program had been mapped out, it would be first to undertake to establish peace on a firm basis and seek to prevent the further effusion of Mexican blood.
Beyond that everything within the bounds of reason and justice which had been asked by the people would be granted. He added:

"The people will enjoy a full measure of liberty and firm guarantees, but the government will punish severely any transgressor of the laws. I am satisfied that since a peace compact has been signed fighting will stop, because this will insure the stopping of the shedding of Mexican blood. The country will enter on a new era of progress."

TO SUBJUGATE REBELS

Madero Now Confronted With Task of Restoring Peace.
El Paso, Tex., May 23.—Francisco
I. Madero is going to have peace in Mexico if he has to fight to get it. He says he will send a force of men into Lower California to help subjugate the rebels in that territory if they continue fighting against the Diaz government.

He got a telegram from Francisco De La Barra, who is to become the president de facto of Mexico, thanking him for his well wishes for the success of the country, and saying that Senor De La Barra would be pleased to have Senor Madero come to the capital and lend his valuable advice in restoring peace to the country. Madero expects now to start for Mexico City by Thursday at the latest, as Diaz is expected to resign tomorrow.

CHINESE SLAIN

Mob Rule in Several Mexican Towns Leads to Bloody Business.
Monterey, Mexico, May 23.—Delayed reports received here give accounts of the killing of Chinese in a number of towns in remote parts of the country by bands of rebels, but none of the massacres were as horrible as that at Toreon, where more than thirty of the Orientals were slaughtered in cold blood.

The Chinese quarter of Imuris, state of Sonora, was raided by rebels and eight killed. At Mazatlan several Chinese were killed and in other smaller towns in Durango, Sinaloa and Sonora, mobs of rebels put many Chinese to death for the mere pleasure of doing the bloody work.

Short More Than $40,000.
Paris, Ky., May 23.—Following the suicide of Edward J. Myall, assistant cashier of the Citizens' Bank of Paris, an examination disclosed a large shortage in the accounts of the dead employee. While the officials of the institution will not give out information, the shortage is said to be in excess of $40,000.

Repetition of the Issy Incident.

Berlin, May 23.—An airman swooped suddenly down on the spectators who had invaded the aviation course at Augsburg. One person is dead as a result and two are dying.

TO GIVE FILIPINOS THEIR INDEPENDENCE

Object Sought By Resolution
In Congress.

Washington, May 23.—In two resolutions introduced, one by Mr. McCall of Massachusetts, a Republican, the other by Representative Martin of Colorado, a Democrat, the independence of the Philippines is contemplated. The Martin resolution asks the president "to take measures for delivering the control and possession of the Philippine Islands to the authorities representing the people thereof and to protect their government by a general treaty of neutrality."

The McCall resolution is similar to one presented last week by Representative Peters of Massachusetts, a Democrat. It sets forth that the Filipino "of right ought to be free and independent." In this measure the president is asked to effect the neutralization of the Philippines by international agreement.

A WARNING FOR THE HOT SEASON

Colored Drinks May Not Be
All They Seem.

HEALTH BOARD MAKES A TEST

As a Result There Is on Exhibition In Its Laboratory a Deeply Dyed Pink Stocking Which Obtained Its Beautiful Hue by Being Soaked in the Contents of a Bottle of Stuff Sold
Over the Counter.

Indianapolis, May 23.—An exhibit for the display that it uses for instructing the people of the state in the proper selection of foodstuffs has been prepared by the food and drug department of the state board of health. The exhibit consists of a dark pink stocking, dyed so as to resist the ordinary methods of laundering. The dye was used from a bottle of summer soft drink, such as may be encountered at almost any of the thousand and one soft drink places that come and go with the hot season. The bottle from which the dyestuff was taken was sent in by an inspector and an examination in the laboratory led one of the chemists to believe that coal tar dye had been used in obtaining the beautiful strawberry color of the liquid. As a test a white wool stocking was obtained and about one-fourth the contents of the bottle was poured into a bowl, and the stocking was permitted to soak in the solution for a few minutes.
It came out a beautiful pink, except for the heel and toe, where silk yarn had been used. Repeated washings by the chemist, under conditions similar to those used in the laundry, failed to dislodge the coloring matter.
"One might as well drink the ordinary dyes that are sold in the drug stores for dyeing woolen goods as to drink that stuff," observed the chemist.

SHOT HIS WIFE

Tragedy Follows Attempt to Secure Divorce at Greenfield.

Greenfield, Ind., May 23.—John Holliday, aged forty-five, of Wilkison, shot and probably fatally wounded his wife, aged thirty-five, in the law office of Cook & Cook, of this city.

Mrs. Holliday is a telephone operator at Wilkison, and she was in consultation with a lawyer preparatory to filing a suit for divorce in the circuit court. She was sitting at the table with Charles Cook, junior member of the law firm, and her brother was sitting in another part of the room when her husband entered and began to beg her to live with him. On her refusal he shot her in the face. She fell to the floor and before he could be hindered he shot her again, this time in the neck and shoulder.

Mr. Cook caught Holliday and took the revolver from him. Others, hearing the shots, went to the assistance of Cook and held Holliday until the arrival of the sheriff, when he was taken to jail.

The Rock Trial Continued.

Bedford, Ind., May 23.—Frank Ross, an important witness in the case of Augustus Ponego and Thomas Meno, charged with the murder of Philip Rock, is missing and the trial has been continued until he is found. Tony Rock, son of the murdered man, has gone in search of him, after saying he would spend all he possessed before giving up efforts to convict the prisoners.

Policeman's Strange Case.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., May 23.—Patrolman Field C. Teaney, aged fifty-six, was found unconscious lying in a pool of blood along the railroad track near Cochran. Physicians found that his skull was fractured and several ribs and his left hip broken. Teaney has not regained consciousness and it is not known how he received the injuries.

Indiana National Guard.

Indianapolis, May 23.—By direction of the governor, George W. McCoy, adjutant general of the Indiana national guard, has issued an order setting July 17-26 as the time for holding the annual guard encampment at Fort Benjamin Harrison. All the guard will

Ward Hubbard, Superintends Work

That is Considered Remarkable Considering Nature and Time.

BUILDS GRADE ACROSS WATER

One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Cubic Yards of Gravel Handled in Three Months.

Ward S. Hubbard of Muncie, brother of Walter Hubbard and well known here, acting as superintendent of a construction work, has just completed a job that will go down in history as a feat which will probably never be equaled. The Indiana Union Traction Company, by which he is employed, has just completed the largest grade in the shortest time of any railroad in the State. Mr. Hubbard is division roadmaster for the company, but intends to sever his connection with the company to accept a similar position with the Rockford, Ill., Traction Company, by which George Nihol, well known here, is employed.

The suspension of the work marked the completion of the grade across the two large strawboard reservoirs one mile southwest of Noblesville, which, until now, has consisted only of piling and was considered by many to be unsafe.

The work of building the grade in the water has been in progress just three months. This is considered a short time, when it is known that 150,000 cubic yards of gravel were handled, but not a day was lost on account of bad weather. At times it seemed an almost endless job. One day fifty-three car loads of gravel were dumped into the water in one place without the foundation rising above the surface of the water.

The grade is three-quarters of a mile long, twenty feet wide and varies in height from twelve to forty feet. It presents a picture of modern railroad engineering.
